Dear Mr. Nichols:

Thank you for taking the time to provide your organization's feedback on the proposed amendments to The Construction Industry Labour Relations Act, 1992 (Bill 80), and offering to meet to discuss your feedback.

In response to your questions, this consultation process is independent of the Standing Committee on Human Services. Feedback is being sought from a wide variety of interested parties who may not have had an opportunity to make a submission to, or be heard by, the Committee of the Legislative Assembly. In addition, this process provides stakeholders who were heard by the Committee to provide any further comments that have arisen since the public consultations. The feedback received from stakeholders as well as the report of the Standing Committee on Human Services will assist in identifying any unintended consequences of the proposed legislative amendments.

I can assure you that the contents of the report of the Standing Committee on Human Services will be studied by Ministry officials to identify the implications of the recommendations.

Thank you again for participating in the consultation process.

Sincerely,

Rob Norris
